VETERANS PLAN
CAMP FOR SONS*Alexandria Confederates to
Mark Lee's Birthday With Banquet.

THE HERALD BUREAU.

A. S. Doniphan.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., Nov. 2.—R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, has decided to hold a banquet January 19, in observance of Lee's birthday anniversary. The camp also has arranged to organize a camp of Sons of Confederate Veterans, and a committee composed of J. W. Garner, George W. Herndon and Booker C. Hall will arrange the organization.

The body of John A. Fox, who died from injuries sustained in an accident on the overhead bridge at Potomac Yard yesterday, when an automobile truck and his motorcycle came together, was shipped to Guyton, Ga. for burial. A coroner's jury will investigate the case at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday night at Demaine's chapel.

Policeman Raymond Smith has resigned to accept a position with the Texas Oil Company. A special meeting of the board of police commissioners will be held at 7:30 o'clock Friday night in the office of Mayor J. M. Duncan to elect his successor. All applicants are expected to appear in person.

Several of the women of St. Mary's Catholic Church have formed a club to be known as St. Elizabeth's Circle, the purpose of which is to assist in the sewing and care of the chapel conducted by the Xavierian Brothers' School. Miss Ellen C. McParland is president of the circle and has the assistance of eleven other women.

The funeral of Mr. Francis Canavan, who died in Washington, took place this morning from St. Mary's Catholic Church. Services were conducted by Rev. William Winston and burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery.

2 Chinamen Near Death, 9 Others
'Shot in Mutiny'

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 2.—Eleven Chinese sailors were shot and two may die as result of a pitched battle today on the atterdeck of the British steamer Elm Leaf, anchored at Good Hope, fifteen miles above this city.

Federal authorities said telephone reports were that the Chinese were placed under guard after threats to go ashore without leave. Twenty-four, all crew members, were taken to the guardhouse. When only two guards were on duty, and attacked with knives, machetes and clubs. Several hundred shots were fired in the ensuing battle. It was reported, when the boat officers went to the guards' assistance.

Two of the Chinese were believed mortally wounded; the others were being brought to the United States Marine Hospital.

WOMAN CARRIES GUN IN POLITICAL FIGHT

Philadelphia, Nov. 2.—Dressed as for a Roman holiday Mrs. Catherine M. Greenbaum, Camden's Democratic Councilman candidate, went "gunning" for public office today.

She went "gunning" in the strictest literal sense of the word. Beneath her brown duvetyne top coat she wore a 22-calibre 6-shot revolver all loaded and everything. With this and a Chinese "lucky dog" a grotesquely carved stone image, Mrs. Greenbaum was all set to meet luck in any form.

Mrs. Greenbaum sprang a new political trick this afternoon when she invaded the place of business of her chief Councilman competitor in the Fifth ward, Julius Allendorf.

Smiling, the new fledged candidate said smoothly: "Mr. Allendorf, will you vote for me?"

Mr. Allendorf, whose friends say he was formerly in the saloon business, almost collapsed. Then, with rising voice and rising color, he told Mrs. Greenbaum she ought to be ashamed to call on him.

"You started a story that my poor mother, 72 years old, is going to vote for you instead of me, her son," charged Mr. Allendorf.

Mrs. Greenbaum denied this. Preserving a note of solicitude she eased her opponent's wrath. Finally she said: "Well, if you find you are undecided, you will think about voting for me, won't you?"

Mr. Allendorf had undergone a complete change of manner in ten minutes.

"Mrs. Greenbaum," he replied, "if I don't vote for myself I promise you I'll vote for you."

Wherever she went today Mrs. Greenbaum was an imposing figure. Her brown coat only partially concealed a gorgeous green shirtwaist. A blue skirt gave an added touch of color to her costume. Her hat was a creation of velvet embossed and greenbaum with something that looked like blue foam, which she denominated "floss."

FATHER KILLS SON ON HUNTING TRIP

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2.—Walter Burgess, 18, was shot and killed accidentally by his father, while gunning today near Gray Torrens, the country estate of William Welsh Harrison.

The father and son left their home early today and were resting near the Harrison estate when the accident happened. John Burgess, the father, placed his shotgun on a pile of brush and it was discharged accidentally when he picked it up.

The boy was standing within a few feet of his father and the entire load of shot entered his body.

He fell unconscious and when he was taken to the Abington Hospital, fifteen minutes later, he was dead. Martin Stackhouse, 45, of Emille, Bucks County, near Bristol, was killed while rabbit hunting by Thomas Morris, Morrisville, near Trenton, while the men were in Willis Hibbs' wood, in West Bristol township, yesterday. Morris was loading his weapon when it was accidentally discharged. He was exonerated by the coroner.

Lady Montague and Nettie Adler, Jewesses, have been appointed city magistrates of the greater City of London.
